

DEACON STEVEN NASH

Steven Nash was ordained in 2015 as a Permanent Deacon and serves at St. Joseph Largo Maryland.

There, he is the Coordinator of the RCIA program, Associate Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus and Coordinator of the Prison Ministry. He has also served as the retreat leader for the Good Samaritan Society, the Sodality, the Legion of Mary Comitium for ADW - and other religious and 501(c)3 organizations. Deacon Nash is a Master of Ceremonies for the Archdiocese of Washington DC.

Deacon Nash has a great love of the arts and was the Master of Ceremonies for the St. Joseph Gospel Choirs Annual Concert for the past three years. He can be heard weekly on WYCB 1340 AM (www.myspiritdc.com) as the host of Stoddard Baptist Home Foundation's weekly radio show, where he also serves as President and CEO. You will see Deacon Nash on TV serving on the Sunday Mass.

Deacon Nash has served on many local and national boards for various causes including education and healthcare. He recently received a national award for his recognition as a mentor and leader in the long-term care profession. Deacon Nash is a graduate of Princeton University, a native Washingtonian and he and his wife, Stephanie and three children live in the District of Columbia.

One of his favorite scripture is, "For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but power."

(1 Corinthians 4:20)