

MEET THE FACILITATOR

FATHER BRENDAN GLASGOW

Fr. Brendan Glasgow was raised in Olney, MD as the second of seven children. In 2011, he entered the newly opened Blessed (now Saint) John Paul II Seminary while studying at the Catholic University of America where he earned his Bachelors in Philosophy. In 2015, he continued his seminary formation at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD where he earned a Master of Divinity Degree in 2019.

While in seminary, Fr. Brendan has served summer assignments at Our Lady Queen of Peace in DC, St. Cecelia and St. Peter Claver in southern Maryland, and St. Elizabeth in Montgomery County.

Fr. Brendan has also had formation opportunities with Catholic Charities, The Little Sisters of the Poor, Malta House, The Missionaries of Charity, The Institute of Priestly Formation and a summer of Spanish immersion in Guatemala.

For recreation, Fr. Brendan enjoys a variety of activities whether that is soccer, volleyball, skiing in the winter or playing music with friends.

Fr. Brendan was ordained to the Priesthood on June 15, 2019 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Currently, Fr. Brendan is assigned as the parochial vicar at St. Peter's on Capitol Hill.
