EASTER SUNDAY

Readings This Weekend:

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 Col 3:1-4 John 20:1-9

Readings Next Weekend:

Acts 2:42-47 1 Peter 1:3-9 John 20:19-31

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his Blood, who has made us into a Kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "The one who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty." Rev (1:5-8). Today we acknowledge Jesus' triumph over death. Just when all seemed a total loss, the disciples experienced his resurrected glory. To those of us who remain faithful, Jesus' story is our story too. Whatever our crosses, disappointments, trials or set-backs, the truth is that troubles don't last always. The Book of Psalms reminds us, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come with the morning light." (Ps 30:5). The Easter message is one of victory for us. Whatever situation you may be going through just say, I'll rise! Tell Satan, "Victory is mine!" Address every fear with the words of an old song: Because he lives, I can face tomorrow! This is the feast of Jesus' victory and ours too. Rejoice today that you're on the winning team!

SUNDAY SCHOOL will resume on Sun., April 16th at 9:30am in the school.

CONGRATULATIONS and WELCOME to Shirley Campbell, Tomeka Seaborn, Richard Quinones, Cashmir MitcheKII and Carter Ball who were baptized at the Easter Vigil Mass on Saturday, April 8th. Some also received the sacrament of Holy Communion and Confirmation. We also congratulate and welcome Akhil Rajasekar who was received in Full Communion of the Catholic Church. May God bless each of them in their journey of faith. May the power of Christ in his Sacraments be a transformative reality for each of you. Welcome to our faith family!

We are very grateful to all those who were so helpful during the Lenten season, from assisting with decorating the church to serving at the Mass and other liturgies. You are greatly appreciated for your continued support of this parish community.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY is April 16th. Please join with our Sunday school youth after the 11am Mass in the church to sing the Divine Mercy Chaplet and then participate in a Eucharistic procession into the neighborhood and around Lincoln Park. Divine Mercy Sunday (Second Sunday of Easter) was instituted by Saint John Paul II calling it "the Sunday of Thanksgiving for all goodness that God has shown us in the whole Easter mystery." The Divine Mercy devotion started in the 1930s by St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who had a vision of Jesus in which He asked for devotions to His Divine Mercy on the Sunday after Easter. The Divine Mercy Chaplet is chanted or sung using the rosary. We will supply words to the chaplet and rosaries. The Divine Mercy Chaplet is dedicated in loving memory of our beloved Deacon Kevin Butler.

Join with Msgr. Pope, the Servants of the Lord and our Sunday School families as they make a Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus through Mary beginning April 11th. The consecration will be held online (via FlockNote). Visit our website (hscchurch.org) for information on what is a Consecration to Mary and how to participate.

April 2023

Dear Parishioners,

Early on a Sunday morning many centuries ago, Christ Jesus walked out of the tomb that the world had assigned to him and went to encounter the disciples he loved. It is still the case today. Jesus encounters us in every Mass, in every Sacrament, and in every gathering of the faithful. This on-going experience of the presence of the risen Lord is so essential to our well-being and to a proper vision for our life. Without it we are so easily overcome by the darkness and difficulties of this life!

Consider how the resurrection affected the first disciples. The Gospel of John appointed to Easter Sunday Morning is unusual in that it does not feature an actual appearance of the risen Lord. There is news of an empty tomb and a lot of running about by the women and apostles trying to figure out what has happened. The events take place just before and after dawn and so it is still rather dark. One can rightly say that it still hasn't "dawned" on them that Jesus is risen. To them, the empty tomb elicits thoughts of grave robbers, not resurrection!

All this may surprise us since Jesus had told them on numerous occasions that he would rise from the dead on the third day. Yet, it doesn't even occur to them as one possible explanation for the open and empty tomb. There are hints that St. John started connecting the dots, but even here, it is unclear. Resurrection light is shining but they seemed locked in the gloom of fear and the trauma of Good Friday. Their minds are weak in understanding and their memories are poor in recalling Jesus' own words, "but on the third day I will rise" (e.g. Luke 18:31)

But suddenly Jesus appeared to them in the upper room and their lives were forever changed. Their full transformation from fearful followers to courageous and joyful witnesses would wait till Pentecost, fifty days later. But already Jesus was shedding light and dispelling the darkness of their unbelief and negativity.

This most certainly needs to happen for us as well. We too can become very locked in the tombs and prisons of our negativity and fear. It can become very difficult to see beyond the gloom of this world, especially in difficult moments. Thoughts of future glory and promising scriptures that all things work together for our good (Rom 8:28) seem a distant reality. But stay faithful fellow disciple to the discipline of Holy Mass and prayer and let the Lord increasingly form you in the joy and hope of a Christian who knows what this life is really all about. Crosses and seeming defeats will come, but for those who are faithful, these are just the birth pangs of unending and unspeakable joy. In three days we rise!

This Easter I want you to know of my love for you all and that I offer many prayers and petitions for you. Every one of you is precious to God and He has put that same love in my heart for you. You have often heard me say how I treasure the relationship we have had over the many years as a parish family. Without you I would not be the priest and disciple I am today. You have taught me much and brought forth joy and confidence in me. So many of you have manifested a strong and enduring faith even in the midst of social injustices and persecutions past and present, and the sad tragedy of scandals in the very Church you love. Yet, in all of this you still found Christ in the Church and in the Sacraments. In all the setbacks and sorrows you have chosen to rise with Christ and declare, "Trouble don't last always." We need always to remind each other of resurrection glory. I am grateful for your witness and testimony to me.

Christ is truly risen! Let us rise with him. Alleluia!

FORMED

April 2023

Dear Parishioners,

It gives me great joy to share with you that our parish now has a subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 apostolates, including Augustine Institute, Ignatius Press, and the Knights of Columbus, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Best of all, this material is free to you.

Our parish will be using the material on FORMED to support our ministries and provide continuing education for staff members and parishioners, as well as outreach for our sick and homebound members.

You have easy access to all of the material on FORMED to support your own faith journey and that of your family members. Here are some examples on what FORMED has to offer:

- ❖ Are you hesitant to return to the Sacrament of Reconciliation after a long absence? Watch Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession.
- ❖ Would you like to be more confident in answering your teenagers' questions about the validity of the Gospels? Watch Lectio: The Case for Jesus.
- ❖ Do you search for a reliable source of Catholic teaching on current issues? Tune in each week to The Augustine Institute Show with Dr. Tim Gray.
- ❖ Have you despaired of finding good movies that your family can enjoy together on a Friday night? Start with Mother Teresa, the story of the selfless saint who brought hope and love to the poorest of the poor.

You can view FORMED on your computer. You can also view on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. You can even listen on your phone or other mobile device.

My hope and prayer is that the content on FORMED will enrich, deepen, and inspire your faith and serve as an additional catechetical resource for you and your family.

Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. Charles Pope, Pastor
