EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Readings This Weekend:

Acts 10:34, 37-43 Col 3:1-4 John 20:1-9

Readings Next Weekend:

Acts 5:12-16 Rv 1:9-11, 12-13, 17-19 John 20:19-31

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his Blood, who has made us into a Kingdom, priests for His God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, He is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him. All the peoples of the earth will lament Him. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "The one who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty." Rev (1:5-8). Today, we acknowledge Jesus' triumph over death. Just when all seemed a total loss, the disciples experienced His resurrected glory. To those of us who remain faithful, Jesus' story is our story too. Whatever our crosses, disappointments, trials or set-backs, the truth is that troubles don't last always. The Book of Psalms reminds us, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come with the morning light." (Ps 30:5). The Easter message is one of victory for us. Whatever situation you may be going through just say, I'll rise! Tell Satan, "Victory is mine!" Address every fear with the words of an old song: Because He lives, I can face tomorrow! This is the feast of Jesus' victory and ours too. Rejoice today that you're on the winning team!

PARISH LIFE

A SECONDARY CONGRATULATIONS

to Ana Elisabeth Marcos Dyball who received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) back on Wed., March 12th at Holy Comforter—St. Cyprian Church. Ana attended Mass here and was enrolled in RCIA over the last year in preparation to become Catholic and be received in the faith. Ana returned to Spain prior to our celebration of the Easter Vigil where she would have normally been baptized and welcomed into the faith. We ask everyone to continue to pray for Ana as she enters into her glorious faith journey!

SUNDAY SCHOOL resumes Sun., April 27th at 9:30AM.

We are extremely grateful to those who were so helpful during the Lenten season, from assisting with decorating the church to serving at the Mass and other liturgies and events. You are greatly appreciated for your continued support of this parish community. Happy Easter!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY is April 27th. Please join us next Sunday after the 11AM Mass to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet as a parish family in loving memory of our beloved Deacon Kevin Butler. Divine Mercy Sunday (Second Sunday of Easter) was instituted by Saint John Paul II calling it “the Sunday of Thanksgiving for all goodness that God has shown us in the whole Easter mystery.” The Divine Mercy devotion started in the 1930s by St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who had a vision of Jesus in which He asked for devotions to His Divine Mercy on the Sunday after Easter. The Divine Mercy Chaplet is chanted or sung using the rosary. We will supply words to the chaplet and rosaries (limited supply). Come and see!

LENTEN FOOD DRIVE: Our Lenten food drive ends Sun., April 27th. This year, in conjunction with the Oblate Sisters of Providence, all donations will benefit a beautiful teenager named Gifty and her village in Ghana, Africa. Biblical Basics of the Greatest Story Ever Told

This year, our parish set our focus on the “Biblical Basics of the Greatest Story Ever Told”. The Scriptures teach us why and how we exist, what happened to us in Original Sin and How God, in his great mercy, has redeemed us and called us back to Him in newness of life. This will be a whole-parish catechesis, led by our pastor, in three stages. Words from a keynote song titled Just a Little Talk with Jesus helps us to understand the 3 stages:

- i) OUR FALL— I once was lost in Sin,
- ii) OUR REDEEMPTION — But Jesus took me in,
- iii) OUR GRACE — And then a little Light from Heaven Filled my Soul.

A reflection by Msgr. Pope on the bible stories will be in the bulletin every other week. They are also on our website (scan the QR code) or have them emailed via FlockNote along with a video. To sign-up to receive emails/videos, or visit: hscchurch.flocknote.com and sign up for Bible Basics! FlockNote is a FREE service!

Yes, Just a little talk with Jesus made me whole!

YEAR OF THE JUBILEE 2025—The Pope has declared 2025 as a Jubilee Year and our parish has the honor of being a Jubilee site. Special blessings are available to all who attend or visit here seeking Jubilee graces. See the flyer in the rear of the church and stay tuned for upcoming events.

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

April 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Early on a Sunday morning many centuries ago, Christ Jesus walked out of the tomb that the world had assigned to him and went to encounter the disciples he loved. It is still the case today. Jesus encounters us in every Mass, in every Sacrament, and in every gathering of the faithful. This on-going experience of the presence of the risen Lord is so essential to our well-being and to a proper vision for our life. Without it we are so easily overcome by the darkness and difficulties of this life!

Consider how the resurrection affected the first disciples. The Gospel of John appointed to Easter Sunday Morning is unusual in that it does not feature an actual appearance of the risen Lord. There is news of an empty tomb and a lot of running about by the women and apostles trying to figure out what has happened. The events take place just before and after dawn and so it is still rather dark. One can rightly say that it still hasn't "dawned" on them that Jesus is risen. To them, the empty tomb elicits thoughts of grave robbers, not resurrection!

All this may surprise us since Jesus had told them on numerous occasions that he would rise from the dead on the third day. Yet, it doesn't even occur to them as one possible explanation for the open and empty tomb. There are hints that St. John started connecting the dots, but even here, it is unclear. Resurrection light is shining but they seemed locked in the gloom of fear and the trauma of Good Friday. Their minds are weak in understanding and their memories are poor in recalling Jesus' own words, "but on the third day I will rise" (e.g. Luke 18:31).

But suddenly Jesus appeared to them in the upper room and their lives were forever changed. Their full transformation from fearful followers to courageous and joyful witnesses would wait till Pentecost, fifty days later. But already Jesus was shedding light and dispelling the darkness of their unbelief and negativity.

This most certainly needs to happen for us as well. We can become very locked in the tombs and prisons of our negativity and fear. It can become very difficult to see beyond the gloom of this world, especially in difficult moments. Thoughts of future glory and promising scriptures that all things work together for our good (Rom 8:28) seem a distant reality. But stay faithful fellow disciples to the discipline of Holy Mass and prayer and let the Lord increasingly form you in the joy and hope of a Christian who knows what this life is really about. Crosses and seeming defeats will come, but for those who are faithful, these are just the birth pangs of unending and unspeakable joy. In three days we rise!

I treasure the relationship we have had over the many years as a parish family. Without you I would not be the priest and disciple I am today. You have taught me much and brought forth joy and confidence in me. So many of you have manifested a strong and enduring faith even in the midst of social injustices and persecutions past and present, and the sad tragedy of scandals in the very Church you love. Yet, in all of this you still found Christ in the Church and in the Sacraments. In all the setbacks and sorrows, you have chosen to rise with Christ and declare, "Trouble don't last always." We need always to remind each other of resurrection glory. I am grateful for your witness and testimony to me.

Christ is truly risen! Let us rise with him. Alleluia!

Reverend Monsignor Charles Pope
Pastor
